Dear Ones,

Words cannot express how much I appreciate the warm, gracious welcome I have received since arriving in San Saba. Everyone has gone out of their way to be helpful and kind. You truly give meaning to the term "Welcoming Congregation."

As I begin ministry with you, I have no agenda ... I appreciate and respect the good ministry that has preceded me. The reality is that no pastor walks into a situation of a clean slate to create some kind of masterpiece through his or her efforts alone. It is a matter of building on the ministry that has already taken place. I don't presume to have a new, better way of doing anything ... I see my role as bringing my unique piece to the puzzle. If each one of your pastors brought the very same piece, the picture would never fully develop and become the full picture that God has in mind for us.

During the last frantic few weeks, my thoughts have been scattered ... scattered across 200 miles ... scattered between saying goodbye to folks who have become my family, and preparing to say hello to a new home where new bonds and relationships will be formed. With a myriad of emotions, both congregations and pastors experience this cycle of goodbye and hello.

I look forward to getting to know you ... to sharing in your joys and concerns; to hearing your stories of God's activity and blessings in your life; to working side by side with you as we live out God's claim on our lives; to growing in our faith together as we encourage and strengthen one another.

Over time you will come to know me ... my hopes and dreams in ministry; my energy and enthusiasm for joint ministry whereby we are privileged to participate in ushering in God's kingdom on earth, in this time and this place; my spiritual depth, which translates into practical application of the Word of the Living God; my dry wit and ability to laugh at myself; my fierce, walk-through-fire love for my children and grandchildren; and my love of fishing and chocolate. I'm not terribly complicated; just dedicated. Others have described me as "down-to-earth and a very real person."

As we begin our hellos with one another, may it be with this one certainty: God has a purpose and a plan for our coming together. It is my sincere prayer that through our prayers, worship, fellowship, and service we live out that purpose and plan ... and give God the glory for the great things he has done, is doing, and will continue to do in our lives. Together, rooted in Christ, may we grow in our love and knowledge of the God who held us in the palm of his hand, breathed life into us, and said, "You are my child, you are a holy place, and I love you beyond anything you can imagine."

In His Spirit,
Debby

OPPORTUNITIES FOR MINISTRY!!

Help needed!!!

Here are some areas the worship team has pinpointed that need someone to agree to help fill in. PLEASE PRAY about your vow of service to our church family and see if one of these areas stands out to you:

ELEVATOR AND BACK DOOR GREETER—Peter Hald is often there to help the ones needing assistance through the door and into the elevator. However, there needs to be a back up person for him...one who is willing to stand at the door watching and waiting for 15-20 minutes before service. Opening doors, helping folks into the elevator and making sure they get inside the sanctuary would be a ministry of great value. In addition, checking on folks as they leave to see if they need more help would be a wonderful gift to those who don't move so easily.

ACOLYTE ASSISTANCE—The children tend to look to Melanie for help getting the lighters lit and to tell them when to go, but Melanie has other responsibilities at the same time which is sometimes difficult. If someone (or two) could take on this responsibility, it would be a fantastic way to encourage our children to participate in worship. Helping them get started during the prelude and when they return to the back of the sanctuary before worship and again at the end of the service would be a give opportunities for growing our children into spiritual, reverent servants to the Lord and His people. What a blessing!

MAIN ENTRANCE GREETERS—Cherry Kay has a beautiful uplifting smile and greets folks coming into our church almost every Sunday. Others have helped at times. If you love just helping people get situated with a bulletin and welcoming them into our church family worship time, you may be one to stand at the front east entrance to open the door and say Hi! while offering a bulletin. When Cherry Kay is out, someone needs to be willing to fill in at the main entrance. What a great way to get to know people coming to our house of worship!

Debby would also love to know of any folks who have a heart for reading scripture or doing children's' sermons. If you have ideas and would be interested in being on her rotation list, please let her know.

Please contact Debby or Tracey and volunteer to serve! You will be so blessed!!

First Ladies:

Our United Methodist Ladies met on June 14th. Nettie Oma led the business meeting, followed by Tracey Thomas leading the program on Missions. One visitor, Taylor Richardson (Tracey's great niece), enjoyed visiting with all the ladies and adding to the discussion. Ann McElroy and Tracey (with Taylor's help) were hostesses after the meeting for a light supper of spinach salad, Texas quiche and fruit pizza.

We will not meet in July but will resume in August.

First Choir:

Due to family reunions and other summer travel plans, the choir will be on summer break until sometime in August. This would be a wonderful time for individuals or groups to plan to offer a solo, duet, or instrumental music to minister to our family in worship. Please talk to Debby or Tracey if you have any musical offering ideas

The Yarbrough Twins

Trish & Henry were blessed with a near 2 week visit from son, Lyle, & twin grandsons, Landon & Justin Yarbrough. Your prayers are working as the last couple of procedures (one just before coming to Texas) have been very easy on Landon & the cysts seem to be becoming easier for doctors to handle. This grandma was bushed after the 3 mile trek to visit Gorman Falls. The kids thoroughly enjoyed its beauty.

Thank you for caring. Your thoughtfulness and hospitality have been truly awesome. Patricia and I were thoroughly entertained at the lunch at Pepperbelly's with an original song, fun table decorations including, among other unique additions, the cow patty cakes. The spotted cow apron & t-shirt will certainly add to my cooking attire. All this added up to a time of great fellowship.

In addition to this day, thanks also for the prayers, cards, calls & wonderful food many of you have provided since this has happened. We are truly blessed to be part of this church family. Thank you! Henry Warren

A special "Thanks" to our Meals on Wheels volunteers:

Stevenson, Carol Littlefield, Bettye McLaughlin, Wahnee Stallings, Nettie Oma Carpenter, John Carpenter, Lynn Blankenship, Austin Blankenship, Aiden Blankenship, Barbara Gilger, Anita Felts, Patricia Warren, Nancy Bannister, Thelma Millican

Our next time to deliver will be August 23-27 and August 30-September 3.

Our Church Family

Summer always brings lot of coming and goings for our church family. Bettye McLaughlin reports that she had a great time on her cruise. She had such a great time that she is already planning another cruise for 2011. Klela Waldie has been to Arkansas to visit family and friends. She made a stop in Dallas to visit family there. Laina Murray was off to Austin with a fellow teacher to attend a workshop. Kelly Murray was off to join in a family celebration for her brother's first return to Texas following some overseas duty. David & Alesha Rogers took some of their kids to Six Flags Father's Day week-end. Cherry Kay also reports a good time on her trip to Europe with her traveling buddies. The best shopping took place at the Lavender Festival on the way home. Monica and Kevin Shahan and the kids spent 5 days in San Antonio. The trip combined business and pleasure. Kevin was attending a school board training. Cindy Prater has been off on an archeological hunt. Tracey & Mike Thomas have traveled both north and south. North to see Lindsey & Derek in Dallas one week-end and south to take the cousin's camp group to San Antonio. Guess who they also saw while there. Bet you never would have guessed Josh, Megan & Avery Thomas. Have you heard their good news? There will be a new addition to the family about November 30th. Suzanne Walters is having a mini vacation with her niece Nila. Scott Mathis has been to coaching school in San Angelo. Alesha Rogers is traveling with some of her FCCLA students to Chicago. Stan & Millie Burnham were enjoying their daughter Pat's visit. I bet Diana also enjoyed seeing her sister. Instead of traveling, sometimes your company comes to see you. Don & Ann McElroy were enjoying a visit Memorial Day week-end with her parents. Sue & J.T Moody enjoyed Georgia company. Sue's son and family visited Rodeo week-end. The whole group rode in the rodeo parade. Did you see J.T.'s picture in the paper? He was named best dressed cowboy. Congratulations, J.T!!!! Speaking of the rodeo parade, did you notice that both Sam & Lee Murray were on City National Bank's float? I heard the idea for the parade float came from Lee Murray. Congratulations also go out to David and Barbara Gilger on their 50th wedding anniversary. That is quite an accomplishment. Bo & Margaret Rice attended their granddaughter's dance recital. You will have to ask Bo Rice about his favorite food—fried pickles. Peter Hald is a very faithful runner. Even in this hot 100 degree weather, he is still running. Keep it up, Peter. J. T. Mathis now has his driving license. I felt I needed to warn you to watch out for him. Someone else I need to warn you about is Jantzen Bell. You may not recognize him. He has grown a foot. Ann Fry is enjoying her vacation from Cherokee ISD. Celia Bell is on a permanent vacation. She retired from San Saba IDS. Elsie, Bob & Debbie Millican attended the Oliver Reunion. Nicole Sears is working again this summer at Alamo Pecan & Coffee till it is time for her to leave for Texas Tech. It was nice to have Ronnie Schulze in church. Deborah Ragsdale is recovering from her surgery. In fact, I heard a rumor that she was out and about in town. Nicole Grant and Elise, daughter and granddaughter of Bob & Debbie Millican made it in so Elise could attend VBS. It sure was good to see Nancy Bannister at the Get Acquainted Supper for Debbie Lake. Wanda Davenport brought her. Thanks, Wanda. Jaycie Everett has spent some quality time at her grandmother's this summer. The two did a shopping trip and have gone swimming together. Well, maybe it was just Jaycie who went swimming. Jaycie Everett, Jaden Owens, J.T. Mathis, Faith & Grace Stewart, Risien and Madison Shahan, Ryan & Casey Mathis, J. T. Moody, Raley Kirk and Hollee Ragsdale have been playing t-ball, machine pitch, and girls softball. Madison Shahan participated in her first gymnastics recital. She rolled, flipped and car-wheeled as the Millican and Shahan families cheered her on. Those around the church during VBS know how much of a blessing it was. Thanks to everyone who helped.

High Seas Expedition a Splashing Success!

103 kids and forty-three volunteers set sail during our High Seas Vacation Bible School! After weeks of preparation, our church was filled with 32 very energetic preschoolers and 71 elementary kids. Songs of praise filled the sanctuary each morning as the kids gathered for Sing & Play Splash led by Monica Shahan. Cherry Kay Lange, Kim Kirk, Debbie Shahan, & Pastor Debby prepared creative, delicious snacks such as Peter's Jail Mix, Chipwrecks, Surf-n-Snakes, Forgiveness Clouds and Share Kabobs! Misty Everett led the elementary kids through super fun games such as Get-to-Know-You Island, Swab the Deck, and Shark Attack! Brandi Easterwood led the Sail Away Cinema, taught about God Sightings, and helped the children learn their memory verses. Linda Parks and Melanie Mathis created super cool crafts in Clipper ship Crafts & Missions! Real sail boats, comfort pillows, bopper poppers, balancing birds, and blankets are just some of the crafts they made with the elementary kids! During the Bible Voyage, Celia Bell & Lesa Schulze brought the day's Bible story to life! Kids were able to meet the servant girl, Rhoda, load cargo and hoist the sail for a high seas adventure, be surprised when Paul was bitten by a poisonous snake, find out what it's like to be unable to walk, and they discovered what it's like to be kept outside the "inner circle". Tracey Thomas led the preschool group and did an amazing job with thirty-two 3,4, and 5 year olds!!! We simply could not have had such an outstanding VBS without the crew leaders! Our awesome crew leaders included: Gennie Hamilton, Mindy Cantu, Jantzen Bell, Elizabeth Bryant, Carol Littlefield, Alison Christian, Russel Lowe, Karlee Cromer, Jaena Edwards, Johna Reavis, Sean Argote, Katie Ross, Alexa Maxcey, Alesha Rogers, JT Mathis, Candace Saldivar, Kayla Kutin, Hollee Ragsdale, Marlo Red, McKenzie Hibler, Audrey Pierce, Haley Oliver, Katie Ingram, Alexis Saldivar, Stephanie Hibler. We are also so fortunate to have volunteers who transported children to our VBS and back home afterwards. They include: Nettie Oma Carpenter, Melanie Mathis, and Mindy Cantu. Mike Thomas graciously gave of his time to help with the sound system and other small projects. Lesa Schulze along with Misty Everett, Laina, Kristy, Lee & Kelly Murray, and Debbie Millican created the awesome backdrop that made our High Seas adventure come to life! Our church was full of life, full of energy and full of praise! It was truly an exciting expedition!
